

Best Online Platform

Catnic.com has been reimagined as a dynamic, user-first platform that delivers genuine value to professionals across the construction and built environment sector. Designed for specifiers, merchants, and installers, the site meets clear user needs through intuitive navigation, mobile optimisation, and a suite of self-service tools that support real-time decision-making. From product selectors and pricing calculators to technical resource, features are built to reduce friction and empower users to act with confidence.
