Team expansion and development of a culture framework

Working with Refresh PR on this campaign has been a dream. The team's knowledge and understanding of the industry is second to none, and that shows with the results of this campaign. From our first planning meeting it was clear that Refresh not only understood our need to modernise our PR efforts, but knew the ways in which we could achieve this from the get-go. Their attention to detail, passion for the work that they do, and commitment to providing the best campaign possible is one of the main reasons 'A Question of Regs' has been our most successful PR campaign to date. We're thrilled with the results they have provided and cannot thank them enough for their incredible work.
